

Bio

Daniel Roque Gomes

Vice-President

Daniel Roque Gomes has been the Vice-President of the Polytechnic of Coimbra since July 2021.

He has a PhD in Psychology specialising in Work and Organisational Psychology, a master's degree in Social and Organisational Psychology, and a bachelor's degree in Social and Organisational Psychology from ISCTE-IUL.

In 2017, Gomes took office as an Administrator of the Polytechnic of Coimbra and was responsible for financial management, public procurement, and information and communication technologies.

He started teaching in 2006 and is now an Adjunct Professor in Organisational Communication, Organisational Change and Human Resource Management in Coimbra Education School of the Polytechnic of Coimbra.

He is the author and co-author of 18 book chapters in national publications, 21 scientific articles in international journals, 4 scientific articles in national journals, and 15 articles in national and international conference proceedings. Gomes is an Associate Editor of the Business and Management Research scientific journal, a member of the Editorial Advisory Board of the Employee Relations Journal, and a Review Editor of the Frontiers in Psychology scientific journal. He is an invited reviewer of multiple scientific journals in Management and Work and Organisational Psychology. He regularly participates in national and international events in management as a speaker.

Daniel Roque Gomes was a human resources manager and an organisational consultant in multiple human resources management and organisational development projects.