If the PhD was awarded by a foreign higher education institution, the degree must comply with the provisions of Decree-Law no. 341/2007 of 12th October, and all formalities established therein must be complied at the application deadline.

9. General tender admission requirements are those set by article no. 17 of LTFP and special requirements set by the previous section.

10. According to article 5.º of RJEC, candidate selection will be based on the assessment of the scientific and professional curriculum of the applicant.

11. The scientific and curricular assessment will be based on the relevance, quality and currentness:
a) Of the scientific, technological, cultural or artistic production in the last five years, deemed most relevant by the candidate;
b) Of the applied research activities developed in the last five years, deemed most impactful by the candidate;
c) Of the knowledge extension and dissemination activities developed in the last five years, namely under the scope of the promotion of culture and scientific practices, deemed most relevant by the candidate;
d) On activities of scientific management and technological innovation programmes in Portugal or abroad.

12. The five-year period mentioned above can be extended by the panel, if requested by the candidate, whenever the suspension of scientific activities is motivated by socially protected circumstances like parental leave, long-term serious illness, and other legal situations of unavailability to work.

13. The assessment of the candidate focuses on his scientific and curricular path, as well as his motivation, taking into account the following criteria:
   A – Knowledge and skills in ecological modelling of plant communities;
   B – Knowledge and skills in genetic analysis;
   C – Knowledge and skills in remote sensing;
   D – Capacity to supervise and coordinate a project of scientific research;
   E – Capacity to lead scientific papers, indexed by the ISI web of science

14. The best five candidates will be submitted to an interview (criterion F) considering the previous criteria on their scientific CV, for which the jury should promote an open debate about the contents and innovative character of the CV.

15. The final score (CF) is expressed in a scale from 0 to 5 points according to the following equation:
   \[ CF = 0.25 \times A + 0.15 \times B + 0.1 \times C + 0.15 \times D + 0.15 \times E + 0.2 \times F \]

16. The jury shall deliberate by means of a nominal vote based on the selection criteria adopted and published, and abstentions are not allowed.

17. Minutes of panel meetings will be issued and should include a summary of the meeting, as well as of all votes casted by the members and respective reasoning, to be provided to candidates whenever required.

18. After the selection the panel will prepare a sorted list of approved candidates and respective classification.

19. The final decision of the jury is approved by the maximum leader of the institution that also has to decide on the hiring.
